

PRESS RELEASE

Sodexo rebrands its Service Vouchers and Cards Division to Motivation Solutions

Mumbai, 7th June, 2010: Sodexo is rebranding its Service Voucher and cards business in India to Sodexo Motivation Solutions. In doing so Sodexo, the global leader of Quality of Daily Life Solutions, is reasserting its ambition to support organisations in motivating their people which is key to an organisation's performance.

Sodexo Motivation Solutions is committed to the ethos that motivation is key to an organisation's performance. Employee motivation is accumulated gradually, and is based on recognising both individual talent and group achievements in an environment that is conducive to quality of life. To this end, the company is launching Sodexo Performance Suite in India, to enhance its current suite of motivation solutions, delivered by a combination of Incentives and recognition services, and employee benefits such as the Meal Pass and Gift Pass vouchers.

By adopting the name Motivation Solutions, this part of the Sodexo Group – the global leader of Quality of Daily Life Solutions – is reasserting its ambition to contribute to motivating people within organizations. Sodexo firmly believes that quality of life and motivation are key levers of performance and is therefore reinforcing its image so that it is consistent with its core business and evolutions in its markets' expectations.

Winning synergies

With a presence in 80 countries, the Group's 380,000 employees are creating and delivering a unique range of Motivation Solutions and On-site Service Solutions which improve the Quality of Daily Life.

Sodexo's two activities allow it to offer its clients a complete and integrated offer and satisfy 50 million people every day. This offer is unique in the world and makes Sodexo the strategic partner of companies and organisations seeking economic performance and the well-being of their employees.

Among other things, quality of life and motivation come from the quality of the working environment, work-life balance and recognition for the work being done, be it individual or collective. Sodexo's offer can introduce solutions in all these different areas.

A consistent and ambitious strategy for the long term

Our vocation has always stayed the same: to improve Quality of Daily Life and contribute to the economic, social and environmental development of the communities, regions and countries where we operate, while encouraging our employees to flourish.

It is this long-term, consistent and ambitious strategy that is behind the Group's success today. It has particularly been made possible by its independence which is vital and also a guarantee of maintaining our values and offering stability for our clients, our partners and our employees.
