

PRESS RELEASE

NAS, a Saudi Arabian Airline, recruits students of Frankfinn Institute for international cabin crew

Mumbai, 27th July, 2010:

Saudi Arabian airline, NAS, has recruited 10 Indian students of Frankfinn Institute for its international cabin crew. The selected candidates would receive compensation package as per international scales.

NAS flies to 20 destinations, including 7 international destinations. In India, they operate from Mumbai and Kochi.

Frankfinn Institute of Air Hostess Training has grown to become the world's No.1 airhostess training institute and the quality of training imparted by the institute is acknowledged globally.

About Frankfinn Institute

Frankfinn operates the largest network of training centres in India and has presence in Dubai, Mauritius and Hongkong. The maximum number of international airlines conduct campus/exclusive interviews for recruitment of air hostesses and flight stewards at Frankfinn.

Frankfinn students are awarded with BTEC Higher National Certificate (HNC) in Aviation, Hospitality and Travel Management, a vocational qualification awarded by Edexcel, UK (a Pearson Group company). BTEC HNC, a level 5 qualification in the UK education system is recognized in over 110 countries worldwide including UK, USA, Canada and Australia.

For more information, kindly contact:

Girija Balan, General Manager – PR, Pressman
Tel: 22188880